HEALING PRAYERS are offered during the distribution of Holy Communion on the third Sunday of each month. Trained healing ministers will receive your requests before or after receiving the Eucharist. It can be especially meaningful to have a laying on of hands and an anointing of oil, if desired. It is appropriate to bring ANY request or concern that you may have for yourself or someone else. These may be prayers for emotional, spiritual, or physical healing. It can be a peace that brings wholeness, according to God's will, in a number of ways. If you are unable to walk to the kneelers, please ask an usher to assist or move to the bottom of the stairs on the East side of the sanctuary (near the pulpit) and the Healing Minister will come to you.

"Let's Talk About Prayer"... in the month of April

April 22

THE PRAYING FAITHFUL

Presenter: Pastor McEachran
301/Fellowship Hall

It began when Jesus' disciples asked "Lord, teach us to pray like the disciples of John." (Luke 11:1) It continued when Paul wrote "Pray without ceasing." (1 Thessalonians 5:17) We will take time to overview the types of prayer and how praying becomes a time of conversation with the God we know in Jesus Christ. A good foundation would be to read the Prayer of Jesus in John 17 from a contemporary translation like The Message.

Join us on Tuesday, April 17, for Take me out to the ball game! Our resident diamond expert, Jim Kittilsby, will share baseball stories from his perspective of coach-scout-and fans. Jim observed the Seattle Mariners (and other teams, too) at this year's spring training. He will talk about what to watch for and what to expect from this year's team. Although O.W.L.S. stands for Older, Wiser Lutheran Saints, our programs have a wide age appeal and younger, wise Lutherans are welcome. The social hour begins at 11:45 am; the potluck begins around noon. No sign-up or RSVP required. Just come, and if you can, bring a dish to share. Contact Fellowship Coordinator Sherry Grindeland, sherry@SALChome.org or 425-746-2529, for more information.
